BIMARU -SUCHARU -DUDHARU ; AJEEBO- AJAB- AJOOBA

WAS

It had the pristine environment.

It had the earliest settlers.

It had the earliest buildings.

It was an island of peace.

It had a more equitable community – less divide .

It had a comparatively more egalitarian society- less segregation .

It was an melting pot.

It was a salad bowl.

It was BIMARU in its design- inception ; even iron age came later

It was the home to dark aspects of religion - Hinduism-Hindutva: Vedic Tantric ;Sanatana-Aghori : karmakandi-Naastik:

The alternative forms of religion found takers here - Buddhism , Jainism:
Their Opposite- complementary sects ; Muslims-Bohras,

Those escaping violent waves of change came in here

It was home to usurpers

It always had crooks-Thugs - Pindarees, criminal tribes , dacoits

It reeled in flesh trade- Bedhnis , Bedias

It was always an internal colony; aboriginals Mostly inside forests

IS

It still has relatively pristine environment

It still is home to the largest number of aborigines

It still has some marvelous structures –viz. among the world's biggest dams

It is still a relatively peaceful state

It is still more equitable community – less divide

It is still a comparatively more egalitarian society- less segregation

It is still an melting pot

It is still a salad bowl

It is still Bimaru; below par human resources

It still has most atrocities against women , children and senior citizens

It is still home to the tantric branch

The alternative forms of religion still have major takers here - Buddhism , Jainism

Those escaping violent waves of still come in here-Sindhi , Bangladeshi refugees

It is still home to usurpers , paratroopers

It is still crooks-Thugs – dacoits ,Naxals

It is steeped in flesh trade- human , child trafficking

It is once again turning into an internal colony – with huge debt and unemployment, river Linking , water sharing;
